

Street Photography Workshop Winners Announcement - Plymouth March 2015.

3/29/2015

The judges and I had a hard time choosing the winners for each category from all of your fantastic entries, with much consideration and plenty of Jaffa Cakes to keep us going we have decided on the following images:

Category Competition Winners

Category: Leading Lines

Winner: Jim Brokensha

Jim's Website: <http://www.jamesbrokensha.com/>

Comment: The Judges were impressed with your use of one of the most basic elements of a street, the yellow lines, and how you have used depth of field within the image to give texture to the road and paint.

Category: Story Telling

Winner: Donna Rowe

Donna's FB Page: <https://www.facebook.com/donnarowephotos>

Comment: The Judges were impressed with how you have framed the text within your reflection and the action of the skateboarder riding away and felt that this was a very strong story telling image.

Category: Reflections

Winner: John Bradburn

John's Website: <http://www.johnbradburn.co.uk/>

Comment: The Judges were impressed with how you have framed the text within your reflection and with how the puddle has been framed to lead the eye in from the bottom right corner.

Category: Pattern

Winner: Donna Rowe

Donna's FB Page: <https://www.facebook.com/donnarowephotos>

Comment: The Judges were impressed with how you have combined the three different patterns within one image and how the tones and textures throughout complement each other.

Category: Lighting

Winner: Jim Brokensha

Jim's Website: <http://www.jamesbrokensha.com/>

Comment: The judges felt that the lighting throughout the image is very effective in adding depth to the scene.

Category: Composition

Winner: John Bradburn

John's Website: <http://www.johnbradburn.co.uk/>

Comment: The judges felt that your use of the cut out squares and framing the two halves of a person within those squares was a clever use of composition. Download your winners badge here:

A great big thank you to everyone who attended and to our judges, I hope to follow all of your work in the future, please post a link to your website/Facebook page in the comments so I can keep in touch, if you would like to be kept in the loop for future free street photography workshops and studio based workshops you can sign up to Devon Photography Training's mailing list on the right hand side on the home page or on the right hand side of the blog page.
